Published by the Senior Class of
LANDIS HIGH SCHOOL
Landis, North Carolina

Foreword

Yes, we as seniors have many moments to remember. Will we ever forget our Junior-Senior Proms or the Halloween Carnival? These, have indeed been the best years of our lives. We want to thank all of the faculty for helping us make it a success. In hopes that we'll never forget these wonderful days at Landis High School and all of our classmates, we the Senior Class of 1961, proudly present this, the last Yellow Jacket.

Moments To Remember

In Memory

We, the Senior Class of 1961, would like to leave this, the last edition of the YELLOW JACKET, in memory of the "spirit of L.H.S." We owe much to her and will never forget her. May her spirit always live in our hearts.

Cooking is only one of the various tasks that girls who are taking Home Economics learn to do. Mrs. Sloop, their teacher, keeps them well informed on what to do, what to wear, and how to always put their best foot forward.

How good a citizen are you? In American History Mrs. Cavin teaches her students how to be a better citizen, how to live in the world, and meet the political, economical, and social problems, and most of all, how to get along with each other.

The library is the center of attraction when it's time for research work and term papers. Mrs. Linn, our librarian, is very helpful in assisting us to secure the necessary information.

Most people would be lost in a chemistry lab, but not these students. With the guidance of Mrs. Barrow, they learn how to find what's in their solutions and how to identify various metals.

Fond memories of "Julius Caesar"? "Friends, Romans, and Countrymen—lend me your ears" or "Beware the Ides of March". These famous lines will never be forgotten by these Sophomores.

How many words can you type in a minute? These typing students, taught by Mrs. Merritt, are learning speed, efficiency, and skill.

Do you have a problem as to which college or career to choose? Or is it a personal problem that needs a sympathetic ear? Mrs. Glenn Miller, our counselor, is ready, willing and able to help you. We had to share her this year with China Grove, but next year at South Rowan the door to her office will be open every day.

Here is a Freshman English class which is taught by Mr. Yates. Now having discovered what high school English is like, they are ready for their second year.

Practice, practice, practice. It seems that it never ceases. Under the direction of Mr. Charles Driver, our band has made various appearances throughout this year, one of which was the Shrine Bowl in Charlotte.

The hustle and bustle of changing classes is caught by our photographer. We have just enough time to get our books and rush on to the next class.

Geography is a very interesting subject, because it gives you the background, resources, topography, logistics, and general information on the people of the world. Mr. Lewis teaches this course and he puts emphasis on placement geography and knowing the relationships of the various countries of the world.

The boys taking Agriculture, under the direction of Mr. Teague, do much outdoor work. These boys are learning to survey.

1960 HOMECOMING

On October 21 Landis played Albemarle in their annual homecoming game. Gail Childers was crowned "Miss Homecoming 1960" and reigned over all the festivities. The theme "Stardust" was maintained throughout the crowning ceremony and the dance sponsored by the Student Assembly which was held at the American Legion Hut.
So ended the last Homecoming of Landis High School.

What kind of a party is this, anyhow?

Our first date . . .

It's really done like this . . .

How many more laps did you say Mr. McCormick?

Been ridin' the range all day.

"My Dream Girl" . . .

But we can't always brush after every meal.

This is a babysitter?

My Hero!

Straight from Paris

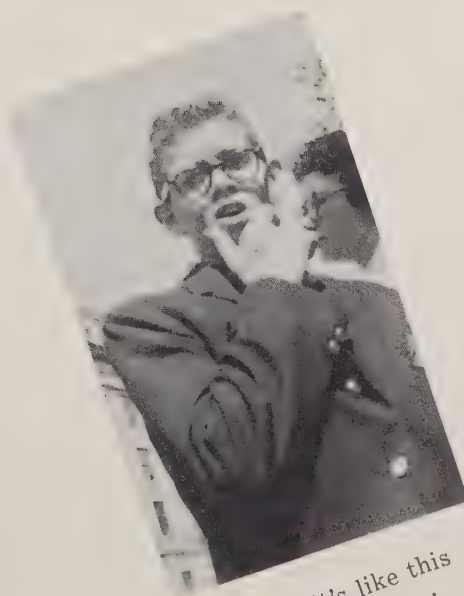

Tarzan and Jane!

Now a word from our sponsor.

I always spend my vacations in Florida.

Well it's like this

Does this do anything for me?

CLASS HISTORY

Our days as students at Landis High School will soon be over. We, as seniors, will no longer be a part of Landis in body, only in spirit. How can we ever forget all the exciting times we had both at school and the activities connected with this, "our school"! As graduation grows nearer, we think of leaving Landis, and our hearts become heavy with regret. No longer will we feel that surge of pride as we are praised and told that it was a success. Walking down that aisle to receive our diplomas, we try to cling to each and every memory, knowing that this moment ends our high school days. We reach out and try to draw the moments closer to our hearts and try to relive each and every one of them.

Remembering our Freshman year, we think about the first Freshman-Sophomore Prom Landis High School ever had, and pride again fills our hearts, as we realize our class started this memorable event. Many thanks go to Mr. Grady Lewis and Mr. Steve McCurdy for helping us make it a success. "Rhapsody In Blue" was our theme. Rudy Wise, President of our class; Gene Corriher, Vice President; and Brenda Isenhour, Secretary-Treasurer served our class well. We were very proud when Bobby Wilkinson was presented the Beta Club Award, and Darrell Spry was crowned King of the Halloween Carnival.

As we entered our Sophomore year, we elected Jerry Beaver, President; Linda Wilcox, Vice President; and Judy Davis, Secretary-Treasurer to lead us through this year. Bobby Wilkinson was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Government. After finishing our Sophomore year, we were more self-confident and were eagerly awaiting our Junior year.

Finally we were Juniors and the days were filled with more activities than ever before. This was an important year that would require much hard work. We elected officers who would shoulder much responsibility and give up much of their free time. Many thanks go to our President, Rudy Wise; Vice President, Jerry Beaver; Secretary, Brenda Bost; and Treasurer, Hollis Miller. Our first task was to produce a successful Halloween Carnival which would pay for our Junior-Senior Prom, May 6, 1960. That date will never be forgotten. That was the night of the Junior-Senior Prom. It was said to be the best Landis has ever had. Our theme was "Dreamland" and that's exactly what it was. How can we ever express our appreciation to Mrs. Glenn Miller and Mrs. Harold Sifford for advising and guiding us through a successful year.

Also that year 28 of our classmates were tapped into the Beta Club, which was under the direction of Mr. Grady Lewis. Serving as Marshals were: Co-chiefs, Janice Smith and Brenda Isenhour; also Kay Stirewalt, Virginia Davis, Linda Wilcox, Louise Harrington, Judy Beaver, Kenneth Daniels, Harvey Whitley, and Bobby Wilkinson. At graduation Barbara Watts received the American History Award and (Becky Wright) the Home Economics Award.

All too soon we began our Senior year—and now to think it's almost over. Our Senior Class officers were: President, Linda Allman; Vice President, Eric Lovette; Secretary-Treasurer, Darrell Spry; Reporter, Carolyn Lambert; and Parliamentarian, Michael Freeze.

In the magazine campaign we exceeded our goal of $2400 by $360.91. Our high salesmen were: Perry Beaver, Barbara Garver, Ralph Kennerly, and Barbara Watts.

Our beauties chosen this year were: Miss Merry Christmas, Barbara Brafford; Miss Homecoming, Gail Childers; Miss Hi Miss, Linda Wilcox. Thank you, girls, for representing our school so well.

And now graduation is no longer a dream but will soon be a reality. All of us will be making a very important decision that we hope will make our future bright and successful. But wherever we are and whatever we're doing we shall always thank Landis High School and the faculty for guiding us and showing us the road to success. As we reach out for our diplomas, we'll think back over these years and breathe a sigh of both relief and regret.

I consider it a pleasure to have been with you in connection with your office has you really did show me to the world.

Mr. Bastian,

Just I want to write "thanks" for giving me this job here. It's a good job, and I like it. Unlike others, it is never dull. (something always happens to add a little more interest.)

I could write a lot of adjectives here to tell you what a wonderful person you are and what a great job you're doing, but instead I'll try to tell you with actions (by doing the best possible in my work).

God Bless You, Mrs. Bastian and may all your days be happy ones.

Sincerely,
Margaret Stewart

Mr. Boston,

I can truly say it
has been my great pleasure knowing you these past years at Landis.
In my book you are a great guy
and I try to ~~copy~~ discipline myself in your ways. I don't <sup>KNOW IF YOU</sup> remember the time you went with us to Williamsburg and took a gallon of orange juice. That was a ball. I hope we will always be great friends.
